

Vast vision must improve our sight
and perhaps at last we'll see,
An end to our home's endless blight and the beginning of the Free.
Climb to tranquility finding it's true worth
Conceiving the heavens flourishing on Earth

STUDENT LIFE

FENWICK IS ...

to finish this sentence is to write boundaries around an experience that is perhaps more real when left unbounded. When we define, summarize, capsule it often helps us to hold on to something, but it can sometimes force us to close off something. Each person experiences reality differently. No one person's experience is the whole. In an effort to have wholeness, we leave the sentence unfinished, we offer this book as an opening page.

FENWICK IS ...

If you have something really valuable to contribute to the world, it will come through the expression of your personality — that single spark of divinity that sets you off and makes you different from every other living creature.

Bruce Barton

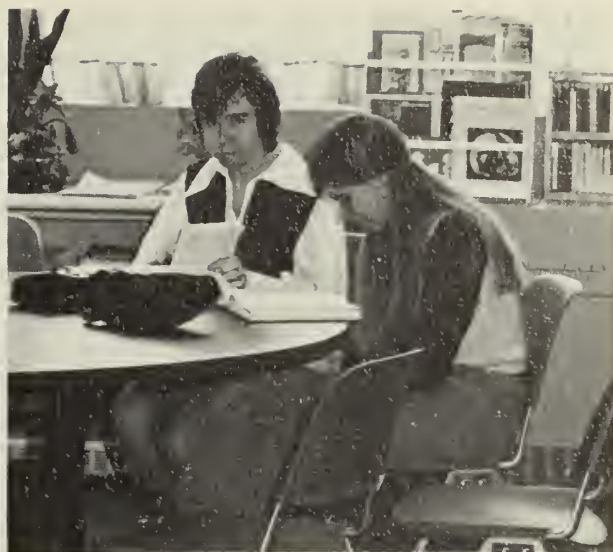

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not. This is the first lesson to be learned.

Thomas Henry Huxley

Be not afraid of life. Believe that life is worth living, and your belief will help create the fact.
William James

The only ones among you who will be really happy are those who will have sought and found how to serve.

Albert Schweitzer

Ideals are like stars. You will not succeed in touching them with your hands; but, like the seafaring man, you choose them as your guides, and following them, you will reach your destiny.

Carl Schurz

SENIORS

Listen hear the sound
The child awakes
Wonder all around
The child awakes.

Now in his life
He never must be lost
No thoughts must deceive him
In life he must trust.

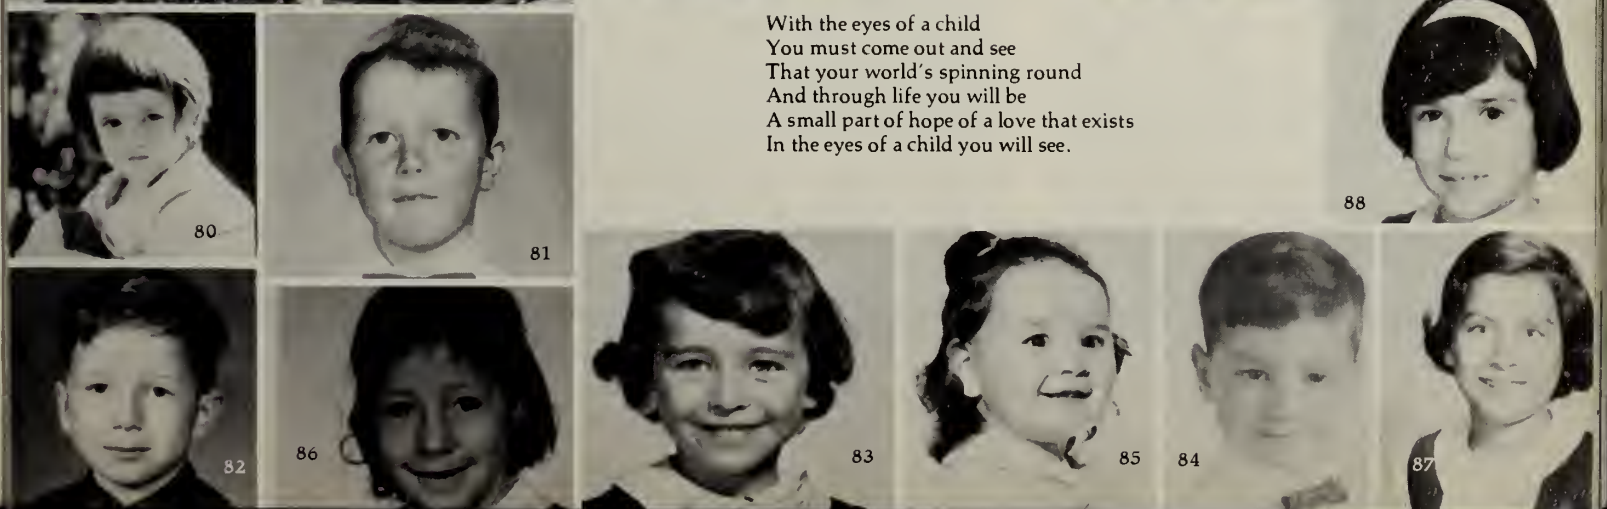

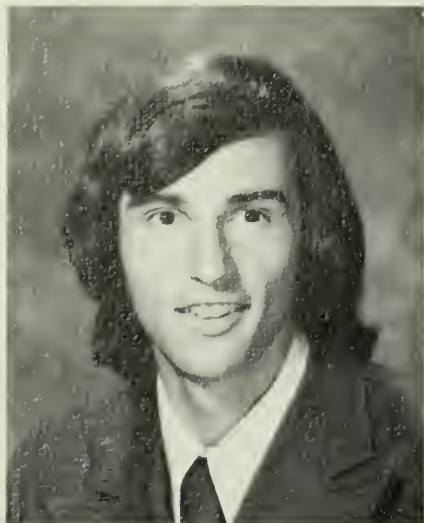

With the eyes of a child
 You must come out and see
 That your world's spinning round
 And through life you will be
 A small part of hope of a love that exists
 In the eyes of a child you will see.

If you think it's a joke,
that's all right
Do what you want to do
I've said my piece and
I'll leave it all up to you.

Cos here there's lots of room for doing
The things you've always been denied
So look, and gather all you want to There's no one here to stop you trying

CLUBS

Wonders of a lifetime, right there before your eyes
Searching with this life of ours
You've got to make the journey out and in
Out and in, out and in.

Drama Club

This year's drama presentation was Cinderella directed by Sr. Ellen Keane. The lead parts of Cinderella and the prince were played by Charlene Donovan and Mark Malloy. Julie Powers and Eileen Gilday stole the show as the "wicked" step sisters. All of the people who were part of the play — those with smaller parts, set crew, make-up costumes and technical — really made the show a night to remember.

Epilogue

Wonders of a lifetime,
right there before your eyes
Searching with this life of ours
You've got to see.

With the eyes of a child
You must come out and see
That your world's spinning round
And through life you will be
A small part of a hope of a love that exists
In the eyes of a child you will see

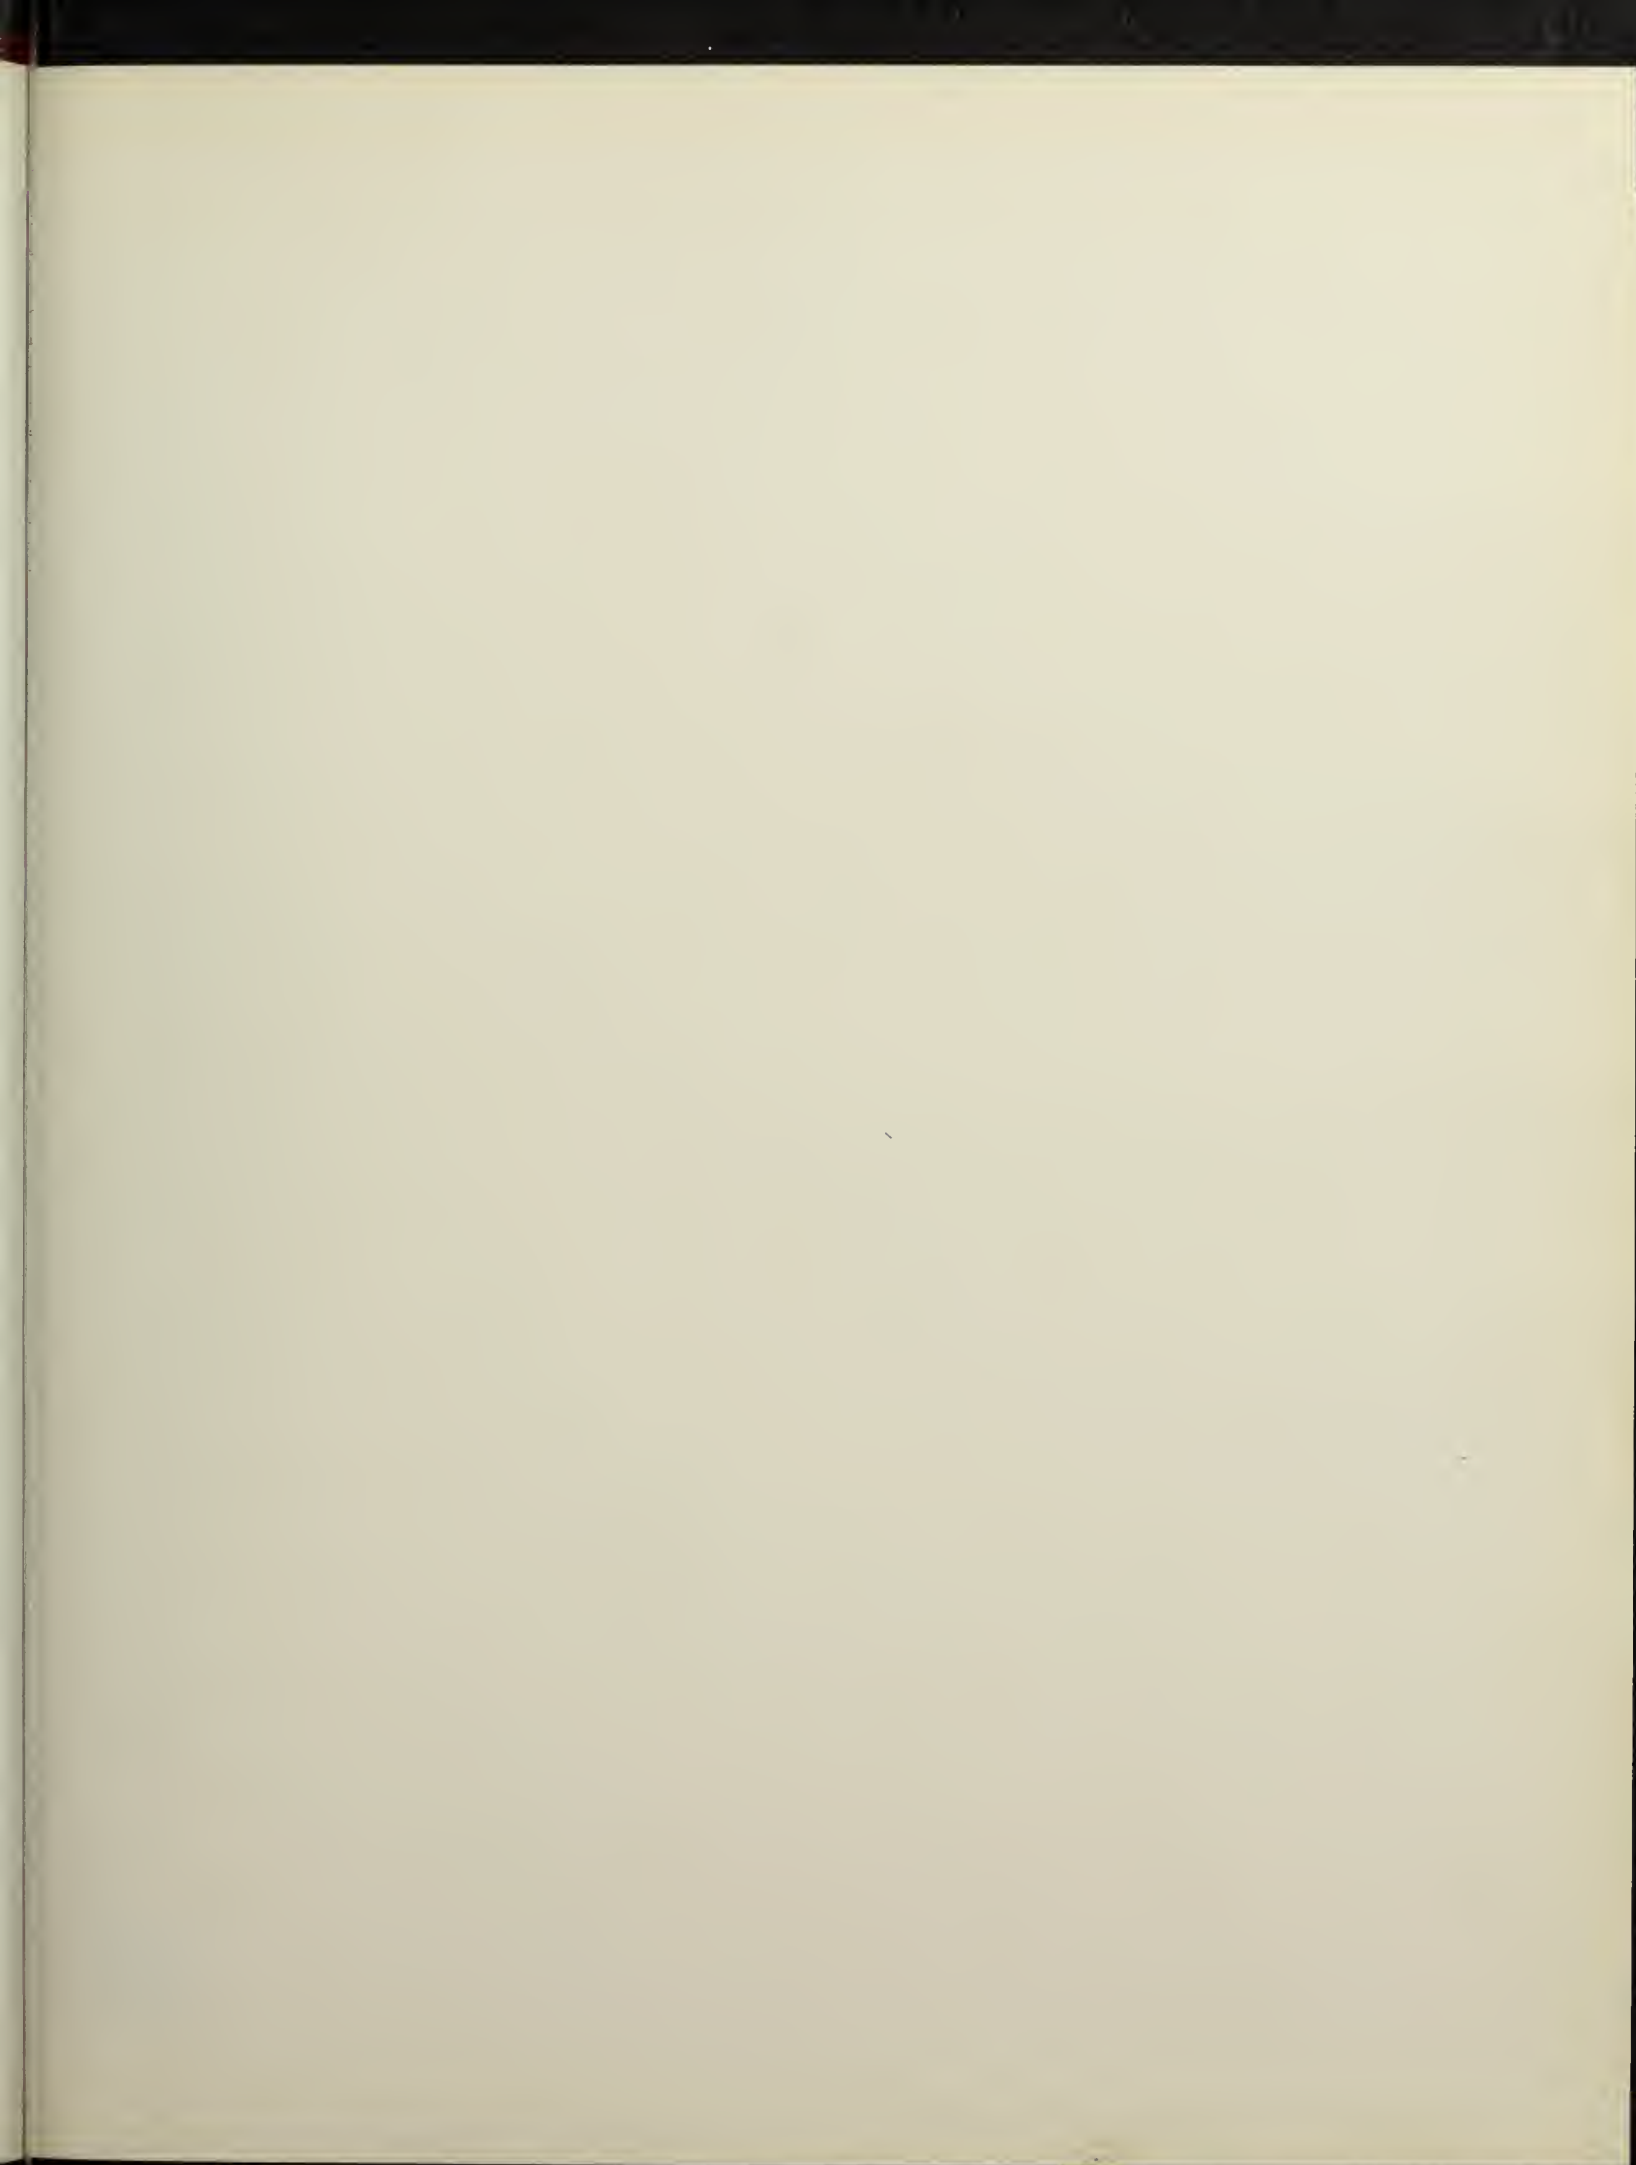

And when my mind improves our sight
and perhaps at last we'll see an end to our homes and our flight and the beginning for the Free
Climb to tranquility finding it is true worth
Comprising the heavens flourishes on Earth
